The fourteen (14) sheets of drawing filed with this application on April 9, 2004, are acceptable.

The specification is objected to because, on page 1, reference must be made to the prior U.S. Application (Serial Number, filing date, Patent Number) of which the instant application is a continuation. Appropriate correction is required. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any other errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claims 10, 16, and 23 are objected to because of the following minor informalities. Appropriate correction is required. In the last line of claim 10, "a" should be "an". In line 9 of claim 16, the word "the" should be deleted since there is no antecedent support for "the second frequency" at this point in the claim. In line 8 of claim 23, "signals" should be "signal".

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. § 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The terminology "a few hundred" and "a few thousand" is so non-specific as to render the meaning of the claim unclear. A "few" could mean very different things to different people of equivalent skill in the art. A more specifically defined range of values is required.

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process... may obtain a patent therefore..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention", in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Art Unit: 2874

Claims 1-6, 8-10, and 12-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-26 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,744,552. This is a double patenting rejection. Claims 1-6, 8-10, and 12-27 are word-for-word identical, respectively, to claims 1-6, 7-9, and 11-26 of U.S. Patent No. 6,744,552.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR § 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR § 1.130(b).

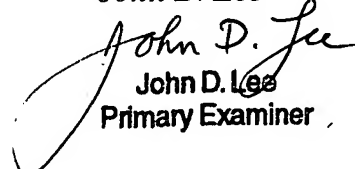

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR § 3.73(b).

Claims 7 and 11 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 7 and 10 of U.S. Patent No. 6,744,552. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because of the following reasons. Claim 7 herein is the same as claim 7 of the Patent, with the additional recitation of the frequency relationship between the input signal and the second frequency. Since this relationship is inherently present in the claimed device, the person of ordinary skill in the art would have found it to be an obvious statement with respect to patented claim 7. With respect to claim 11 herein, the person of ordinary skill would find 300 nanometers to fall within the broad definition of "a few hundred nanometers", and 300 thousand microns to fall within the broad definition of "a few thousand microns". There is thus no patentable distinction between claims 7 and 11 herein and claims 7 and 10 of U.S. Patent No. 6, 744,552. The patenting of claims 7 and 11 herein would improperly timewise extend the "right to exclude" already granted by the Patent.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. U.S. Patent 6,597,851 to Johnson et al describes optical frequency converters utilizing photonic band-gap structures. U.S. Patent 6,744,552 to Scalora et al has matured from applicant's parent application Serial Number 09/742,295, filed December 22, 2000. The remaining cited prior art documents were cited and discussed during the prosecution of applicant's parent application Serial Number 09/742,295, filed December 22, 2000.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a), the Examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR § 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the Examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. § 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. §§ 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a).

Any inquiry concerning the merits of this communication should be directed to Examiner John D. Lee at telephone number (571) 272-2351. The Examiner's normal work schedule is Tuesday through Friday, 6:30 AM to 5:00 PM. Any inquiry of a general or clerical nature (i.e. a request for a missing form or paper, etc.) should be directed to the Technology Center 2800 receptionist at telephone number (571) 272-1562, to the technical support staff supervisor (Team 8) at telephone number (571) 272-1564, or to the Technology Center 2800 Customer Service Office at telephone number (571) 272-1626.
